

EMPLOYMENT (EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN) (FEMALE CONDUCTORS) REGULATIONS 1958*

1. Citation.

These Regulations may be cited as the Employment (Employment of Women) (Female Conductors) Regulations 1958.

2. Exemption from section 34.

Any female employee employed under the Public Service Vehicles (Control of Drivers and Conductors) Regulations 1952, and licensed as a conductor of a public service vehicle, may work between the hours of ten o'clock in the evening and one o'clock in the morning of the following day notwithstanding the provisions of section 34 of the Employment Act 1955.

3. No work between one o'clock and five o'clock in the morning.

No female employee referred to in regulation 2 shall work between the hours of one o'clock and five o'clock in the morning.

4. Period of rest to be 11 hours.

No female employee referred to in regulation 2 shall commence work without having had a period of eleven consecutive hours free from such work.

5. Offence and penalty.

Where a female employee is employed contrary to the provisions of any of these Regulations the employer of such employee shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred ringgit and in the case of a continuing offence an additional fine of fifty ringgit for each day during which the offence continues.
